Located on 2/F, No. 54 GuanQian Road, Zhongzheng District, Taipei City, the Special Investigation Division (SID) will be unveiled at 11:10 on April 2 by Justice Minister Shih and Prosecutor General Chen to start operations. SIT will dedicate its time to the investigation of cases specified in Article 63.1.1 of the Court Organic Act.

In the beginning, SID will have about 40 personnel, including one head prosecutor, nine prosecutors, prosecutor's investigators, secretaries, etc. They will be transferred from the Ministry of Justice, the District Prosecutors Office and the High Prosecutors Office. All personnel are the best of our time. These personnel who will be the first line of investigation are well-trained, well-disciplined, aggressive, self-motivated, experienced and highly resistant to stress. In the beginning of operations, SID will undertake cases that have been investigated by the Black Money Investigation and Action Center and meet the criteria specified in the Court Organic Act. It will establish its authority and reputation with its investigation performance in order not to fail the high expectation of the public.
