

As the mass media reported today: “Legislator (Congressman) Chiu Yi pointed out: ...After Huang Jui-ching’ s bank account in Switzerland was frozen in January 2008, Former-President Chen Shui-bian once invited Minister of Justice Shih Mao-lin, Former Investigation Bureau Head Yeh Sheng-mao and Prosecutor-General of SPO Chen Tsung-ming to the Presidential Residence to study the subject issue...”. That report is inconsistent with the facts. The Supreme Prosecutors Office would now solemnly and seriously clarify that report.

Prosecutor-General of SPO Chen of The Supreme Prosecutors Office would never team up with the three aforementioned people to study the case of Huang Jui-ching’s account at Former-President’s resident. The Supreme Prosecutors Office hereby declares to clarify the report to prevent any misleading outcome.
