

As mass media report has it: “In the investigation into the overseas accounts of Former-President, the judicial authorities have disclosed various versions. To date, there have been no proof available to verify the gain by means of corruption. But the judicial authorities have revealed mixed messages, with truth mingled with the false which can not be proved at all”. That report is not true. The Supreme Prosecutors Office must solemnly clarify it.

As always, we at the Supreme Prosecutors Office handle all cases absolutely on an objective, impersonal and just basis. We nether overdo or neglect. We faithfully honor the proof-based principle to safeguard the truth. We voice our voices absolutely through our spokesman. Never do we voice different versions nor do we release any false information which could not possibly be verified. On all cases we have entertained, we are proceeding with the investigation at full steam. We deserve trust. We appeal to all public of the entire society to trust judicial authorities.

The Supreme Prosecutors Office

Data last updated on: 2008/8/22