With regards to transfer of the Special Investigation Division Director Chen Hung-Ta, the Supreme Prosecutors Office announces as follows:

1. Director Chen Hung-Ta of the Special Investigation Division (SID) has successfully completed his short-term mission, and will return to the Taiwan High Prosecutors Office as of May 1, 2013.
2. It is planned that in the future, division leaders Chang Chin-Feng, Lin Feng-Wen and Yang Jung-Tsung will serve as acting directors of the SID on a month-to-month rotational basis, so as to reinforce their administrative experience.
3. Prosecutor-General Huang is extremely grateful for Director Chen's whole-hearted dedication and contribution in assisting by leading the SID in investigating special and serious corruption and economic crimes over the past three years. Prosecutor-General Huang particularly praises Director Chen's scholarly knowledge, ethics, strength of character and professionalism. He truly deserves the accolade of "model of the judiciary".
